Madrid, September 24, N. S.

ON the 19th Inſtant a Courier from Vienna arrived at St. Ildefonſo with the Ratification of the Peace concluded between the Empire and the King of Spain, and on the 22d it was publiſhed here with the uſual Ceremony. At the ſame Time it was proclaimed, That the confiſcated Eſtates of the Perſons who followed the Emperour's Party in the late Wars, ſhall be forthwith reſtored to them. The Eſtate of the Duke de Uceda which was confiſcated and granted to the Duke de St. Pierre, having been reſtored to the former, his Catholick Majeſty has been pleaſed to aſſign to the Duke de St. Pierre the Sum of four thouſand Piſtoles to be paid out of his Treaſury, in order to make ſome Amends to him for the Loſs of the Revenue of the ſaid Eſtate. Mr. Tobit Burg, of Ireland, who has been for ſome Years in his Catholick Majeſty's Service, has obtained a Penſion of five hundred Piſtoles per Annum, in Lieu of the Revenue of a confiſcated Eſtate in Valencia, which is to be reſtored to the Owner. Yeſterday the Prince de Cellamare ſet out for Barcelona, from whence he will go through France to Genoa, and thence proceed to Rome. The Infanta having been taken ill of a Fever, it is apprehended that it may turn to the Small-Pox.

Turin, Sept. 29, N. S. The King and the Royal Family continue at the Veneria. On the 24th Inſtant the Chevalier Ricardi, who was Intendant of Savoy during the Time of the Plague at Marſeilles, was brought to his Tryal, upon an Acquſation that he connived then at the Conveyance of ſome Goods from Dauphiné into Savoy, notwithſtanding the Barrier ſettled and the ſtrict Orders given for preventing the ſpreading of the Contagion by Goods brought from infected Places: And being found guilty, Sentence of Death was paſſed upon him. But his Sardinian Majeſty has thought fit to ſpare his Life, and to order him to be kept confined in the Village of Brigha, ſituate in the Mountains of the Col de Tende. The King has nominated the Advocate General Sicardi, who is now his Majeſty's Miniſter at Vienna, to be Preſident of the Senate of Nice.

Stockholm, Sept. 8. On the 4th Inſtant Count Gollovin the New Muſcovite Envoy, had his Audience at this Court, to which he was introduced as uſual by M. Cronſtrom Under-Maſter of the Ceremonies: He ſpoke in the Ruſſian Language, and was anſwered in the Swediſh. The late Accounts from moſt Parts of this Kingdom, agree, that notwithſtanding the Coldneſs and Inconſtancy of the Weather, they have generally got in all their Corn in a pretty good Condition; and in moſt Provinces it yields ſo abundantly, that the Price is already fallen 30 per Cent. Letters which came in Yeſterday from Malmoe, adviſe, that Count Brancas, Miniſter from the Court of France, came over the Sound to Helſingbourg the laſt of Auguſt; and proceeded on his Journey hither the next Day, ſo that it is reckoned he will be here the 11th Inſtant.

Copenhagen, Sept. 25, N. S. On the 22d Inſtant in the Evening the King of Denmark, with the Queen, the Princeſs, and the whole Court, arrived at Fredericksberg; where his Majeſty will ſtay till To-Morrow, and then remove to Fridenſbourg, there to paſs the Autumn. The 23d, Captain Kiarulf returned hither from Peterſbourg, whither he had been ſent in a ſmall Veſſel. He reports, that the Ruſſian Fleet is returned into Cronſlot and Revel, to be laid up for the Winter. It is ſaid Admiral Gabel has given Orders for the laying up of the Daniſh Fleet. The Tranſport Ships which brought hither Troops and Seamen from Norway, have actually received on Board their Stores of Proviſions, and will put to Sea the firſt fair Wind to carry back thoſe Forces.

Hague, Oct. 9, N. S. On the 4th Inſtant the Commiſſioners and Principal Officers of the ſeveral Admiralties took an Oath in Preſence of the States General, to obſerve and ſee executed the new Tarif or Duties on Goods Imported or Exported; thoſe of the Admiralty of Zealand excepted, the States of that Province refuſing their Conſent to this Tarif. The States of the Province of Holland are to aſſemble To-Morrow: General Hompeſch with other General Officers whom they have ſent for to conſult, are arrived. We have Advice, that the Archdutcheſs paſſed through Maeſtricht the 3d Inſtant, without making any Stop there. The Prince of Heſſe with ſeveral other General Officers advanced out of the Town to meet her; and the whole Garriſon under Arms lined the Streets through which ſhe paſſed, the Artillery on the Ramparts firing. The States General having lately written a Letter to the King of Sardinia, acknowledging him by that Title, the Chevalier Oſorio, the Sardinian Miniſter, has delivered to their High Mightineſſes the King his Maſter's Anſwer thereto.
